

One Direction

Many people are in love with a new boy band called One Direction. The members of One Direction are Niall Horan, Zayn Malik, Liam Payne, Harry Styles, and Louis Tomlinson. They first appeared on a television show called the X Factor. Although they didn't win the show's prize, they became quite popular. Since then, they have won many awards, including several MTV Video Music Awards. They have many popular songs, such as "Best Song Ever", "Kiss You", and "What Makes You Beautiful". Recently, a magazine reported that the band's members were the richest young stars in Britain. They have used their fame and money to help many people through charities. They support Greenpeace, an organization that tries to help the environment. Recently, they encouraged their fans to donate £500,000 pounds to cancer research. They have announced plans to tour throughout the UK and the USA in 2015.
